

1. Share your thoughts about what you've read together.

8. Don't forget about reading material beyond story books.

2. Make reading part of every day.

Charge-Up reading at home

7. See everyone in the family as a reader.

3. Don't shy away from new or challenging words. Talk about them.

8 top tips for making the most of shared reading time at home

6. Let the child use the pictures to tell the story themselves.

4. Short on time? A few minutes of reading together is OK.

5. Let the child turn the pages and control the pace.

